HOTEL | MAE HONG SON

Beauty in Virgin Nature

*M*ae Hong Son, bordering on the northwestern to Myanmar, is known among inhabitants as 'misty town' rendering a dreamlike atmosphere since early morning unto the evening. The Imperial Hotel Mae Hong Son, only 10 minutes away from airport, sits in a private patch of teak woodland.

*B*lended in beautifully with the surrounding, the hotel is a low-rise building with emphasis on the use of wooden finishing touches and decorations. The Golden Teak Restaurant, with its open-air terrace overlooking the exquisite landscape, serves authentic northern Thai dishes as well as a selection of international cuisine.

Facilities & Attractions

*A*part from being a peaceful retreat, the hotel offers complete conference facilities and banqueting for those who want an exotic getaway from the bustling city life. Cultural visit to a number of temples in town or taking a boat trip visiting long-neck Karen hill tribe or trekking will add to make the stay a memorable one.

*D*iscover tranquility amid unspoiled environment. The Imperial Hotel Mae Hong Son features 104 well-furnished rooms with a touch of local ethnic décor.
